Guy Miller will make the season of 1891 at the farm of E. A. Smiley It from Sunday to Friday morning of each week; Fridays and Saturdays at Dodge City, Kansas. the sequel of this tale.

Guy Miller is a general purpose stallion, 16 1-2 hands high, and weighs 1260 pounds, with a splendid action and a pleasant disposition, having bone and muscle enough for any purpose, the size and style for a gentleman's carriage or coach horse. This horse represents three of the greatest strains of trotting blood according to record in the world.

PEDIGREE

Guy Miller was sired by Wood's Guy Miller; he by Sayer's Guy Miller, he by Galway's Guy Miller; he by the celebrated Rysdick's Hambletonian. The dam of Galway's Guy Miller was sired by Colvin; he by the thoroughbred. Sir Archy. The dam of Sayer's Guy Miller was sired by Abdallah, the same Abdallah that sired Rysdick's Hambletonian; grand dam by one-eyed Kentucky Hunter, the sire of Flora Temple. Wood's Guy Miller's dam was by Seely's American Star, described in the Orange county stud book as having more pluck and endurance than any horse in the world. Guy Miller's dam is Old Bets by Potter's Clay, by Henry Clay. 8. She is the dam of the famous Blue Mare, record 2:22; trial heat 2:18. She is now thirty years old, a more that has seen the hardest kind of usage and to day is now thirty years old, a more that has seen the hardest kind of usage, and to-day stands perfectly sound without a pimple or puff.
